ROUTE 66: GO FOR BARBEQUE

As all-American as apple pie, the Go for Barbeque concert presented by Go for Baroque promises a centennial celebration you won't forget.

After nearly two decades, the accomplished sextet Go for Baroque has been recognized as the premiere chamber music ensemble in the state of Oklahoma. Go for Baroque entertains, enlightens and engages the audience by sharing informal anecdotes about the music being performed and the musicians performing it.

Featured works by American composers trace the various musical, ethnic and cultural influences as they pertain to Route 66 and its role in Oklahoma's vibrant history. A Rag for marimba, a Gallup for trumpet, and an American Musical Journey of folk melodies help create a fun-filled evening for young and old alike.

The sextet features members of the Oklahoma City Philharmonic including flutist Parthena Owens, violinist Densi Rushing, cellist Jim Shelley, pianist Peggy Payne and percussionist Roger Owens. Steve Goforth, principal trumpet of the Bartlesville Orchestra, also performs with the group.

"We have a good time with our audience, from the fiddlin' on Back Up and Push to the Black and White Rag for marimba," said Payne, who also manages the group. "Go for Barbeque, Go for Baroque, and go to the concert, and you'll be going home happy!"

Go for Baroque will be performing in concert on (date) at (time) in the (location). The concert will be funded in part by (credit funding sources). For more information, visit goforbaroque.org or call 405-840-0278.
